CHARADE.

IN THREE PARTS.

My first is a country on the other side of the world, with a population of about 100,000,000. The people subsist chiefly on rice and rats, and the chief product of the country is

TEA.

My second is seen in this country, consists of the dried leaves of several plants of the genus thea, belonging to the natural order of Trustroemiaceæ. The leaves are two or three inches long, set hair an inch to an inch broad, and of elliptical, oblong shape. These leaves, when properly prepared, make a very delicious and gently stimulating beverage, which is among women very much the same as Thackery says the opium is among men—the great unbosomer of secrets.

My third is just the same place as my whole, being the best place in the State of Maine to buy the best

Teas, Coffees, Spices, &c. &c,

For the least money.

THE ANSWER

My First is CHINA

My Second is TEA

My Third is STORE.

And my whole is the celebrated establishment called the China Tea Store.

The attention of families in the Country is respectfully called to the fact that they can save considerable money and get a better article, if they will club together and send to the CHINA TEA STORE. Whole neighborhoods will find you, he same.

We also have always a fresh and perfect stock of CANNED GOODS and all RANCY GROCERIES. EVERYTHING WARRANTED.

PORTLAND KEROSENE OIL.

The prevalence of a large quantity of inflame and dangerous oils in the market by cheap pretenmany of which are little better than Naptha itself—and the existence of false reports in regard to the Portland Kerosene Oil, render it a matter of justice to ourselves, as well as safety to consumers that some notice should be taken of these facts. The following has been passed and advertisement, and would call attention to the high standard of our Oils. THE REFINED PETROLEUM, the fire test of which is 122, THE PORTLAND KEROSENE, the fire test of which is 110 degrees Fahrenheit, and which reaches considerably high it also, we would say, that we are determined to maintain their long established reputation.

POLITE PHRASES FOR RASCALITY.

We have hitherto had occasion, in referring to occurrences in our own State, to notice and lament the growing tendency to apply soft phrases to those species of rascality which are perpetrated after a "genteel" fashion, and which are lifted above the plane of common theft only by their magnitude and the "social standing" which really increases the culpability of the offender. There is a great deal of influence in terms, especially when they come to signify the popular estimate of actions; and it has come in these latter days that there are many who would deem the epithet of "thief" or "liar" an intolerable burden, who think it little or no disgrace to be charged with and exposed in "defalcations" or "irregularities." We believe that the too common use of such phrases, denoting a disposition to palliate all rascality committed on a grand scale, is having a powerful effect in increasing those breaches of confidence in which trusted agents rob the funds of their principals, and some recent remarks of the N. Y. Post on this subject are so peculiarly forcible and well-timed that we quote them here. Referring to the alarmingly frequent robberies by bank officers and other custodians of funds not their own, that journal says:

They are not evils only, but crimes. They assail and destroy that faith in human nature, technically known as "credit," which is needful in any business intercourse between men, and without which commercial and financial transactions involving large sums of money cannot take place. In short, they are the most dreadful and appalling evidences of moral corruption of which it is possible to conceive.

We do not need to rehearse the list of these moral failures during the last three weeks, beginning with young Carleton, of the Union Trust Company, and ending (at the date of writing) with John N. Pierce, Jr., of the Merchants' National Bank, of Lowell, Mass. They have followed one another in quick succession, and even the casual readers of the public journals have been made aware of their occurrence. But there is need of reminding the community at large that burglars are not so dangerous to society as the violator of a financial trust, and that the obligation of society to defend itself from the two classes of criminals is equal. Indeed, of the two we are inclined to feel less contempt for him who contents himself with killing the body, than for him who robs us of our money and of our confidence in mankind, since the former is often ignorant, is usually provoked to the crime, and in every case subjects himself to a well-defined and well-known punishment; while the latter, as a rule, is educated, has no provocation except his own criminal instincts, and in nine cases out of ten not only escape all legal punishment, but also all social odium.

For so base and cowardly a form of rascality we have no better words than, "defalcation" and "irregularity." That is to say, in the one case a bank officer cuts off or takes away a piece of money for his own use, and in the other makes false entries in bookkeeping; while the essential fact is disregarded that in the first place he takes another person's property for his own use, and in the second place falsifies his accounts to conceal the theft. The moral quality of these actions is thus lost sight of, and our children are taught to speak of what is morally wicked as if it were simply an error in an ordinary business transaction. We fear that this confusion of languages indicates a prevailing tenderness towards this form of crime; for, whatever may be thought or said of such transactions, they are criminal in every sense of the word, and he who commits them is a most insidious and dangerous enemy to society.

We hope that one of our largest and best audiences will extend a genuine Bangor greeting at Norombega to-night, to Mr. Thomas Nast, the modest but world-famous artist whose inimitable sketches in Harper's Weekly have not only illustrated but also aided powerfully in moulding the history of the United States during the most eventful period of our national existence. The secret of Mr. Nast's power has been his quick sympathy with the purest and noblest impulses of the American people and his wonderful ability in throwing all the force of argument and conviction into a symbolical portraiture which with the first glance went directly to the popular heart. His genius afforded constant inspirations to patriotism in the darkest hours of our national struggle, and his every effort has been true to liberty and humanity. Unawed by the threats of a cabal which alike controlled the services of assassins and courts, he lashed the Tammany corruptionists with the scathing strokes of his pencil until the people aroused in their indignation and crushed the infamous ring. He has rendered noble service to his country and to his fellow man, in glorifying virtue, and in ridiculing sham, and we offer him our cordial greeting as one whose productions have been more readily comprehended and more universally popular than those of any editor in the country.

Benjamin Dean has received the distinction of being set up by the Democrats of the Massachusetts Third Congressional district to be knocked down by his Republican competitor, Mayor Pierce, at the election in November.

A Washington special to the Boston Advertiser says the belief rapidly gaining ground there that the President will select either Justice Swayne or Justice Miller for the Chief Justiceship, in case the office is filled from the Bench, which is now thought probable.

At a meeting of the Republican members of the French Assembly at the residence of Jules Simons, Friday night, one hundred delegates were present. An electoral scheme was adopted and a committee, composed of representatives of three groups of the Left was appointed to draw up an official declaration in the name of the Republican party. Thiers and Gambetta support the action of the meeting, which also has the approval of every conservative delegate. The Republicans generally are becoming more hopeful.

Western Congressmen, who have recently been in Washington in considerable numbers, state that the indications of a possible opposition in the West to Mr. Blaine in his candidature for the Speakership are rapidly disappearing. It is now stated that John A. Kasson of Iowa, whose friends have considered him an eligible candidate, will positively refuse to permit his name to be opposed to that of Mr. Blaine. Recent expressions of Southern members also confirm the belief that Horace Maynard can secure no considerable following even in his own section.

AN HISTORIC FLAG. Capt. Buddington has brought back the famous flag unfurled by Capt. Hall when he took possession of the land 82° 29' north latitude, "in the name of God and the United States." Aside from this the flag has an interesting history. It is known as the "Grinnell flag," and was first owned by the United States ship Peacock in her researches in the Antarctic ocean with the Wilkes exploring expedition. It was taken sled by Lieut. De Haven in the Grinnell expedition in search of Sir John Franklin, and subsequently by Dr. Kane in his Arctic explorations. Still later it was used by Dr. Hayes in his North Pole expedition, and lastly by Capt. C. F. Hall of the Polaris.

THE NATIONAL FINANCES.

TREASURER SPINNER'S REPORT.

The following facts and figures concerning the finances of the country are from the forthcoming annual report of U. S. Treasurer Spinner:

The net receipts of warrants, exclusive of repayments and counter-warrants, were $245,080,224, and the net expenditures, exclusive of the same items, $224,044,597. The net receipts were distributed as follows: Loans, $214,931,017; customs, $188,089,522 internal revenue, $113,729,314; lands, $2,582, 312; miscellaneous, $29,037,055. The receipts from customs have decreased since the report of last year, $28,250,000, and those from internal revenue, $10,000,000; increase from miscellaneous sources, $4,600,000, and from lands, $800,000. The expenditures of the diplomatic service have decreased about $300,000, and those of the judiciary increased about the same amount. Expenditures on account of the public debt, $343,535,945, against $629, 323,414 last year.

Amount of redemption and destruction of moneys and securities during the fiscal year ending June 30, last, $143,552,157, including legal tender notes, $64,000,000 and about $35,000,000 fractional currency. Total amount destroyed since 1861, to July 1, 1872, $2,035, 033,571. Balance on hand July 1, 1873, $83,- 481,414. Total amount redeemed to July 1, $5,036, 767,128. Total amount of national bank notes destroyed to July 1, $9,280,302.

The Treasurer says as to coin certificates, there were sent to New York previous to June 30, 1872, $252,110,000; during the fiscal year, $46,050,000; total sent to New York, $298,760,000; on hand, unissued, at New York, $10,453,000; total issued at New York, $288,- 310,000; total redeemed of New York issue, $278,842,000; total outstanding, as per public debt statement July 1, 1873, $39,460,000. There were issued from Nov. 13, 1865, to June 30, 1868, $615,346,900, and redeemed during the same period, $578,886,000; total outstanding $39,460,000; on hand in New York, unissued, July 1, 1872, $10,575,500; sent to New York during the fiscal year, $46,050,000; total, $56,- 625,500; less amount issued during the fiscal year, $55,570,500; on hand in New York, unissued July 1, 1873, $10,453,000; reduced June 28 and 30, 1873, $426,000. Total on hand, June 30, 1873, as per statement of the Assistant Treasurer at New York, $10,884,- 000; 30th of June, 1872, number of National banks organized, and which had deposited securities for their circulation, 2007; number of banks organized in the last fiscal year, 108; number of banks to the 30th of June, 1873, 2115; number of banks doing business June 30, 1873; number failed prior to July 1, 1872, 23; failed in the last fiscal year, 4; having no circulation (securities withdrawn, 12; number of involuntary liquidations and closed, 9; total number organized, 2115; securities held in trust to secure the redemption of circulating notes, $380,410,550; to assure public deposits with National Banks, $15,580,000; to assure subscriptions to the funded loan of 1881, $12,774,350. Total securities of National banks at par, $413,744,900; number of bank depositories, 158.

Under the head of special deposits of bonds by national banks designated by the Treasury Department as coin depositories for subscription to the funded loan of 1881, the Treasurer says that from February 14, 1873, to June 30, 1873, the First National Bank of Washington, D. C., made deposits of the Union Pacific bonds with the Department as security for subscriptions to said loan, which were placed in the custody of this office, namely: Number of deposits made, 92; number of withdrawals, 1588; largest amount on deposit, May 2, 1873, $14,277,450; on the 30th of June, 1873, the amount of deposit was $12,774,350, all of which has since been withdrawn.

The payment of coin interest on coupon bonds held in trust was made during the fiscal year by the issue of 317 drafts, amounting to $107,930. The number of examinations of securities held in trust for national banks during the fiscal year was 1200. The semi-annual duty paid by national banks during the calendar year preceding January 1, 1873, was, for the term of six months preceding July 1, 1872, on circulation, $1,648,928; on deposits, $1,572,000; on capital, $197,708. Total, $3,387,365. For the term of six months preceding January 1, 1873, on circulation, $1,604,490; on deposit, $1,572,370; on capital, $221,111. Total, $3,358,455. Total duty for the year, $6,846,220. Comparison of duty for 1871 and 1872 is as follows: Total amount received in the latter preceding January 1, 1872, $6,605,812; increase of duty in the last calendar year, $240,508.

THE CHIEF JUSTICESHIP. A Washington despatch says that Senator Cameron, during a conversation with a Pennsylvania friend, lately, said that, notwithstanding he had just had two long talks with the President on public affairs generally, he had not received any intimation whatever as to the appointment of Chief Justice. The Senator was asked if he did not think that the President would appoint Senator Conkling. "I do not think Conkling would take it. I had a talk with Conkling about it some time ago, and he assured me in the most positive manner that he would not accept the Chief Justiceship under any circumstances.

"He said," continued Cameron, "that his desire was simply to serve out his term in the Senate and then go back to the practice of the law, and make a fortune." Senator Cameron spoke in the highest terms of Justice Miller, and said he would make a very acceptable Chief Justice, but it was evident that if he had any strong preference he was keeping it to himself.

THE BAZAINE TRIAL. There was a large attendance of spectators at the Bazaine court-martial at Versailles, Friday. Several interesting communications were read relative to the efforts to communicate with Metz and the probity of the messengers employed twenty of whom were summoned as witnesses. The prosecution attaches great importance to a despatch delivered, as it alleges, to Bazaine on the 23d of August, announcing MacMahon's movement toward the Meuse to join with the army of Metz. Bazaine is charged with refusing to avail himself of the balloon service to communicate with the interior. The counsel for defense will move that the justificatory memoir published some time ago by the accused be admitted as evidence.

Among the documents read was one showing that there were 17,000,000 cartridges in the arsenals of Metz, of which only 1,000,000 had been used when the place capitulated; and that when Bazaine said he had no ammunition, the fact was that he had no intention of fighting.

ESTIMATES FOR 1874. A Washington despatch says the sum to be asked for by the Navy Department for the next fiscal year will be two or three millions less than last year; those of the War Department about the same for all the usual expenditures, but the Secretary in his report will urge the necessity of strengthening and improving coast defences, which will require a large expenditure. He suggests no sum, but will leave the question entirely with the Committee on Appropriations. The estimates of the Interior Department are $1,800,000 more than last year. Of this increase over a million and a quarter is due to deficiencies and increased expenditures of the Indian service. The Post Office Department will not require as much by many thousands for the extension of the mail service as last year. The amount of official stamps used by all the departments will considerably overrun the appropriations. The estimates for the pension list show a decrease of half a million. The maximum point of expenditures on this account appears to have been passed. The list is chiefly diminished by minors coming of age. On the other hand invalid payments are increasing since as a general rule soldiers are only placed on the list when afflicted by diseases which grow constantly worse and so annually increase the rate of average payments.

THE POLARIS INQUIRY. A Washington despatch says there is apparently a good deal of ill feeling among members of the second Polaris party against the Tyson party. They seemed to consider the reported poisoning of Capt. Hall as charges specifically made by the Tyson party, and they are much disturbed by the idea Tyson advanced that the separation from the party on the ice floe was intentional. It seems, however, that the feeling sprang up since the Buddington people were rescued and learned the statement made and not to have existed before the unfortunate separation from the vessel. There seems to have been much personal hostility among the most prominent men of the two parties, and the arrivals of Meir, Chester and Tyson have not improved the situation. The

THE CORN AND WHEAT CROPS. Reports dated October 1, received by the National Crop Reporter indicate a slightly increased yield on corn in Illinois, Missouri and Ohio. Reports from all quarters agree almost unanimously that there is but little damage done by the recent frosts, but confirm the reports of serious injury by frosts in the latter part of September, at which time most of the corn was yet in the milk. The result will be a great deal of soft corn, much of which cannot be used to feed stock. Reports from Iowa indicate a loss on corn as compared with the loss of last year, only 6 1-10 per cent. of which would make the yield this year 129,000,000 bushels. As far as can be learned the aggregate increase of wheat shown this fall is greater than in 1872, and thus far, in most sections, the weather has been favorable to the growth. Reports from Minnesota, Illinois, Iowa, Wisconsin, Missouri, Kansas and Ohio confirm the estimated selling off in the Irish potato crop in these States, which in 1872 produced over 45,000,000 bushels. The loss at the given rate would aggregate over 16,000,- 000 bushels. Scattering reports from the cotton States mention much damage caused to the late cotton by drought.

ARMY OF THE TENNESSEE. It is now officially stated that President Grant will leave Washington on the 14th, reached Toledo, O., on the 15th and remain until the 17th, the object of the visit being to attend the meeting of the Society of the Army of the Tennessee. Besides President Grant, Generals Sherman, Sheridan, Pope, Logan and many others have signified their intention to be present on the same occasion.

The storm in Florida prostrated the land lines and has severed communication with Cuba.

EX-SENATOR POMEROY SHOT

WASHINGTON Oct 11 Ex Senator Pomeroy of Kansas was shot this afternoon by ex Representative M F Conway of Kansas Conway fired three shots one of which took effect on the right breast of Pomeroy. The extent of his injuries have not yet been ascertained Pomeroy walked to a carriage after being shot

LATER DETAILS.

Pomeroy was walking up New York Avenue about half past two and when near the corner of 14th street met Conway who drew a large revolver and when within six feet of Pomeroy fired three shots at him, one of which took effect in the right breast just below the nipple

THE ASSASSIN STOPPED

Conway then put up his pistol and started to walk off. Two gentlemen, Mr. Stillson and Mr Addison, who witnessed the shooting which occupied not more than a minute, immediately stopped Conway, Addison exclaiming "Stop Sir! You have shot a man and must give your reasons for so doing" Conway replied "He has ruined myself and family" He then surrendered his pistol to Stillson and accompanied that gentleman to the station house

THE WOUNDED MAN

Pomeroy who had fallen to the pavement was assisted to a carriage and driven to his house on K street near 11th street, where physicians were immediately summoned

ONLY A SLIGHT WOUND

The doctors made an examination of Pomeroy's wound and pronounced it simply an abrasion Pomeroy says he never had any controversy with Conway and has not the most remote idea of cause the of attack

POMEROY SAYS

Conway met him a few days ago, the first time in about two years, and said abruptly, I am out of money to which Pomeroy replied, 'I know then how to appreciate your situation for I am nearly out myself' This was all that passed between them At their interview to-day, not a word was spoken before Conway commenced firing surprising Pomeroy more than anything that that ever happened to him before.

CONWAY'S WIFE

Pomeroy was emphatic in stating that he never had any controversy or ground for difficulty with Conway On the contrary he says about three years ago he and Senator Sumner got Conway's wife a clerkship in the Treasury Department on her representation that her husband would not support her Subsequently says Pomeroy, Conway tried to trustee or draw her wages at the Treasury Department and failed to accomplish it, but he (Pomeroy) had no controversy with him on that subject or any other Conway for several years past has been living apart from his wife and was in poor circumstances This it appears Conway thought a reflection upon him as he himself desired some kind of enjoyment but failed in getting assistance to obtain it.

CONWAY'S ANTECEDENTS

Conway is a native of Baltimore, M D, a printer by trade, studied law and emigrated to Kansas and took part in the early struggles of that Territory as a Free Statesman After living as County Judge for a while he was elected to Congress as the first Representative of Kansas At the end of his term he was appointed by President Johnson, Consul to Marseilles, but was removed by Grant soon after the latters inauguration. He has been living in this city several years and during that time is not known to have participated in Kansas politics

CONWAY RETICENT

Conway is at the Police headquarters in custody of authorities having been taken there by Stillson Excepting the remarks he made when he was stopped in the street by Stillson that Pomeroy had ruined him and his family Conway has been entirely reticent and has not referred to the affair As the wounds of Pomeroy are not of a serious nature, Conway will be detained at the Police headquarters until Monday when he will be arraigned before the Police Court The weapon used was a six shooter. Three of the barrels were discharged.

MUCH EXCITED

Conway is a small sized man and appears to be between 40 and 45 years of age. After the shooting he seemed very much excited and upon the first remark made to him by Stillson What have you done? he replied I don't know or I hardly know what I am doing?

CONWAY BAILED

Conway was taken before Judge Snell this evening and released on $10,000 bail Alexander Adamson becoming his bondsman a certificate of the physician having been produced to the effect that the wound of Pomeroy s was very slight

THE CAUSE OF THE ACT.

Conway is laboring under very great mental excitement and it is said to night that the cause of the shooting is that Conway had frequent political reverses in Kansas which he attributed to Pomeroy His counsel has advised him to make no statement, and upon his being released this evening he was taken away by friends

THE BAZAINE TRIAL

PARIS Oct 11 Among the spectators at the Court Martial of Bazaine today were many Americans The reading of the reply of the defence to M Riviere's report begins next Monday, and will probably last until the middle of the week There is a rumor here that Baron Stoffel has been arrested, but it is thought premature Prince Frederick Charles and other German officers will not appear before the Court as witnesses unless his counsel declares their testimony indispensible

SATURDAY'S SESSION

VERSAILLES, Oct. 11 The Bazaine Court Martial case was resumed this morning Several documents submitted by the prosecution were read The most important one, showing Bazaine responsible for delay in the bombarding of provisions in Metz by neglecting to inform his officers of the situation, thus preventing them from taking precautions against scarcity

THE CLOSE OF THE ARRAIGNMENT

Riviere concludes as follows 'In refusing chief command of the army the Emperor gave the last order to Bazaine, which was to retreat to Chalons Though this order was repeatedly insisted upon, Bazaine aimed to escape the Emperor's control He deceived the Emperor and in causing, as he did by his false information in advance towards Montmedy, greatly shared the responsibility for the disaster at Sedan.

BAZAINE AND THE EMPEROR CONTRASTED

Alluding to the negotiations between Regnier and Bazaine the report says "Bazaine never ought to have listened to a stranger who was without credentials It was his (Bazaine's) duty to fight or, if he was unable to do so, to pass the enemy by repeated sorties and thus obtain provisions Bazaines army was the only hope of the nation, while it resisted nothing could be lost. Bazaine was anxious about the form of Government, but the Emperor, when granting a farewell audience to General Bourbaki, advised him to proceed to Tours and offer his sword in the cause of the Nation, respecting the convention, the first condition of which was the government of the territory of the country

Several officers censured Riviere's report, and announced the intention of demanding a Court Martial.

PARIS DECLARES AGAINST DE CHAMBORD—FORESHADOWING THE BARRICADES

Twenty-seven members of the Municipal Council of Paris have published an address in which they declare that the Assembly has the right to abrogate the national sovereignty, affirm that the majority of the people reject the claims of Count De Chambord to the throne of France and request delegates from the Department of the Seine to declare frankly how they propose to vote when the question of a change in the Government is brought up in the Assembly.

DECREES OF CONGRESS—CHURCH AND STATE SEPARATE.

Congress has decreed the following The Church and State are to be separate. Congress cannot make laws establishing or prohibiting religions. Matrimony is to be a civil contract. Religious institutions cannot possess property. Asimple promise to speak the truth complying with obligations contracted with penalties in case of violation, is substituted for the religious oath. No one is obliged to give his or her services without just compensation. No contract is to be permitted which alienates a sacrifice of the liberty of man in the matter of work, education and religious vows. The laws thus consequently do not recognize monastic orders nor permit their establishment by any denominations or under any pretenses, and no contract to be allowed among persons consenting to their own proscription or banishment, gratitude binding him as it does with the deepest tie.

THOMAS NAST, the artist, arrived in this city Saturday noon, and is now sojourning at the Bangor House Saturday afternoon Capt E E Small gave the distinguished visitor a ride about town, and an opportunity to inspect one of our big lumber mills, with both of which he expressed himself much pleased Mr Nast met with great success in Lewiston, we see by the Journal, and his lecture is praised without stint. The Journal says his sketches are made with colored crayons upon a large screen, the artist working and talking at the same time, and it thus describes his work —

This sketching he did in a rapid and, to the average observer, an incomprehensible manner A great blotch of vermillion,

BEFORE THE GATE

By W D HOWELLS

They gave the whole long day to idle laughter
To fitful song and jest,
To moods of sobriness as idle after,
And silences as idle too as the rest

But when at last upon their way returning,
The bare lane and heath
Through the broad meadow in the sunset burning,
They reached the gate, one fate spell hindered them both.

Her heart was troubled with a subtle anguish,
Such as but women know
That was, and lest love speak or speak not languish,
And what they would, would rather they would not so

Till he said—man like nothing comprehending
Of all the various guile
That women can win themselves with, and bending
Eyes of relentless asking on her the while—

Ah if beyond this gate the path united
Our steps as far as death!
And I might open it!— His voice affrighted
At its own daring faltered under his breath.

Then she—whom both his faith and fear enchanted
Far beyond words to tell,
Feeling her woman s force with had wanted
The art he had that knew to blunder so well—

Shyly drew near, a little sop and mocking
Shall we not test the gate?
For tea, she said. I m quite worn out with walki g
A h, thanks your arm And will you—open the gate?

LAWS OF THE UNITED STATES,

Passed at the Third Session of the Forty-Second Congress.

Convention between the United States of America and Denmark Naturalization Concluded July 20 1872 Ratified January 22, 1873 Ratifications exchanged March 26, 1873 Proclaimed April 15, 1873.

By the President of the United States of America.

A PROCLAMATION

Whereas a convention between the United States of America and His Majesty the King of Denmark, relative to the establishment of citizens and subjects of the two countries, was concluded and signed at Copenhagen by their respective plenipotentiaries on the twenty-second day of July, 1872 the original of which convention, being in the English and Danish languages, is word for word as follows:

The United States of America and His Majesty the King of Denmark being desirous to regulate the citizenship of the citizens of the United States of America who have emigrated, or who may emigrate from the United States of America to the Kingdom of Denmark, and of Danish subjects who have emigrated or who may emigrate from the Kingdom of Denmark to the United States of America, have resolved to conclude a convention for that purpose, and have named as their plenipotentiaries that is to say the President of the United States of America Michael J Cramer minister resident of the United States of America at Copenhagen, and His Majesty the King of Denmark Otto Rudolph Baron Rosenorn Lehn commander of Dannebrog and Danebrog-mand, chamberlain to His Majesty his minister for foreign affairs &c. &c. &c. who after having communicated to each other their respective full powers found to be in good and due form have agreed upon and concluded the following articles viz:

ARTICLE I

Citizens of the United States of America who have become or shall become, and are naturalized as citizens of Denmark, and Danish subjects who have become or shall become, and are naturalized as Danish subjects shall be held by the United States of America to be all respects and for all purposes as citizens of the United States of America and shall be treated as such by the Kingdom of Denmark.

In like manner, Danish subjects who have become of shall become, and are naturalized, according to law within the United States of America and who have resided or shall reside uninterruptedly for the period of two years within the limits and dominions of the Kingdom of Denmark, shall be held by the Kingdom of Denmark in all respects and for all purposes as citizens of the United States of America and shall be treated as such by the United States of America.

ARTICLE II

If any such citizen of the United States as aforesaid naturalized within the Kingdom of Denmark as a Danish subject, should renew his residence in the United States the United States government may on his application and on such conditions as that government may see fit to impose admit him to the character and privileges of a citizen of the United States and the Danish government shall in that case, claim from him as a Danish subject on account of his former naturalization.

In like manner, if any such Danish subject as aforesaid naturalized within the United States as a citizen thereof should renew his residence within the Kingdom of Denmark, His Majesty's government may on his application and on such conditions as that government may think fit to impose admit him to the character and privileges of a Danish subject and the United States government shall not claim him as a citizen of the United States on account of his former naturalization

ARTICLE III

If any person naturalized in the United States shall after residing in his former country without the intent to return to it be considered by the United States as having renounced his naturalization.

Intent not to return may be held to exist when a person has resided two years in the country of his former nativity or three years in the other country

The provisions of this article shall not apply to citizens of the United States who reside temporarily in Denmark.

This present convention shall go into effect immediately or after the exchange of the ratifications of the same which shall be effected in the city of Washington within the space of six months from the date hereof or sooner if possible and it shall remain in force ten years and from the end of that time until the expiration of twelve months after either of the contracting parties shall have given notice to the other of such intent on

ARTICLE V

The present convention shall be ratified by the President of the United States of America by and with the advice and consent of the Senate thereof and by His Majesty the King of Denmark and the ratifications shall be exchanged at Copenhagen as soon as may be, within eight months from the date hereof or sooner if possible.

In witness whereof the respective plenipotentiaries have signed the same and have affixed thereto their respective seals.

Done at Copenhagen, the twenty-second day of July in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seventy two

MICHAEL J CRAMER.
O D ROSENORN LEHN

And whereas the said convention has been duly ratified on both parts and the respective ratifications of the same were exchanged at Copenhagen on the fifth day of March, 1873 by Michael J. Cramer minister resident of the United States of America at Copenhagen, and Otto Ditlev Rosenorn Lehn Commander of Dannebrog and Danebrogsmand, chamberlain of His Majesty's minister for foreign affairs &c. &c. &c. on the part of their respective governments

Now therefore be it known I Ulysses S Grant, President of the United States of America, have caused the said convention to be made public to the end that the same and every article and clause thereof may be observed and fulfilled with good faith by the United States and citizens thereof.

In testimony whereof I have caused the seal of the United States to be affixed to these presents and signed the same with my hand.

Done at the city of Washington this fifteenth day of April in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seventy three and of the Independence of the United States of America the ninety seventh
